WORSHIP AIDGLORIA:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

FIRST READING: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 20-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailling prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. ALL: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL: PSALM 128:1-2, 3, 4-5 | "Blessed are those who fear the Lord."

- Blessed are you who fear the Lord, who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork; blessed shall you be, and favored.
- Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home;
Your children like olive plants around your table.
- Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the Lord.
The Lord bless you from Zion: may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

SECOND READING: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. ALL: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Matthew 25:14-15, 19-21

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

"A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

Priest/Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord. ALL: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow your head through "and became man") and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

ALL: May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

HOLY

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again. (OR)

Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free. (OR)

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Grant us peace.

HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

ALL: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Celebrant: The Mass has ended. Go in peace to love and serve the Lord!

ALL: Thanks be to God.

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Thanksgiving Day holds a special significance as a time of expressing gratitude to God and reflecting on the blessings bestowed upon us. This cherished tradition offers a moment to pause and consider the wonderful things that have transpired in our lives and in the lives of those around us. Often, we overlook numerous blessings and fail to acknowledge them with gratitude towards God and others. As Catholics, we are called to be a thankful people, acknowledging and appreciating everything that God is doing in our lives. Cultivating a spirit of gratitude not only aligns with our faith, but also contributes to a sense of joy. A grateful person is a joyful person.

On this meaningful occasion, I express my gratitude to the Lord for each one of you. The sentiment articulated by St. Paul in his first letter to the Thessalonians resonates with me today: "We always thank God for all of you, remembering you in our prayers". Indeed, I continually give thanks for you, my beloved people of God, and pray that we may collectively grow in love, holiness, and faithfulness. Your love and support have played a pivotal role in transforming our parish into a joyful and vibrant community.

I extend a heartfelt invitation for you to join in celebrating the Thanksgiving Mass at 9am, an opportunity to collectively offer thanks to our loving and generous God and express gratitude to one another for the support rendered on our shared journey of faith. God bless you always,

With much love and gratitude,

Fr. Angelos Sebastian

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ November 19, 2023

Liturgical Color: GREEN

Parents: We invite you to spend some time discussing this weekend's readings with your children. By helping them understand God's word, you will help build a strong foundation of faith!

Theme: God wants us to do our best.

Reading (1 Thessalonians 5:1-6)

Saint Paul tells us that the Second Coming of Christ will be scary for people who are living in the darkness of sin, but it will be happy for people who live in the light of God's love and truth.

Gospel (Matthew 25:14-15, 19-21)

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us a story to explain what will happen to his faithful friends and servants at the end of their lives.

Discussion

- What did the man give his servants in the Gospel reading?
- What did one of the servants do with his money?
- How did the master reply to him?
- We can think of the money in the Gospel reading like the talents that we are given from God. What are some special talents you have?
- How do we use our talents?
- How can we share our talents with others and help them grow?
